ORIOLE 1980

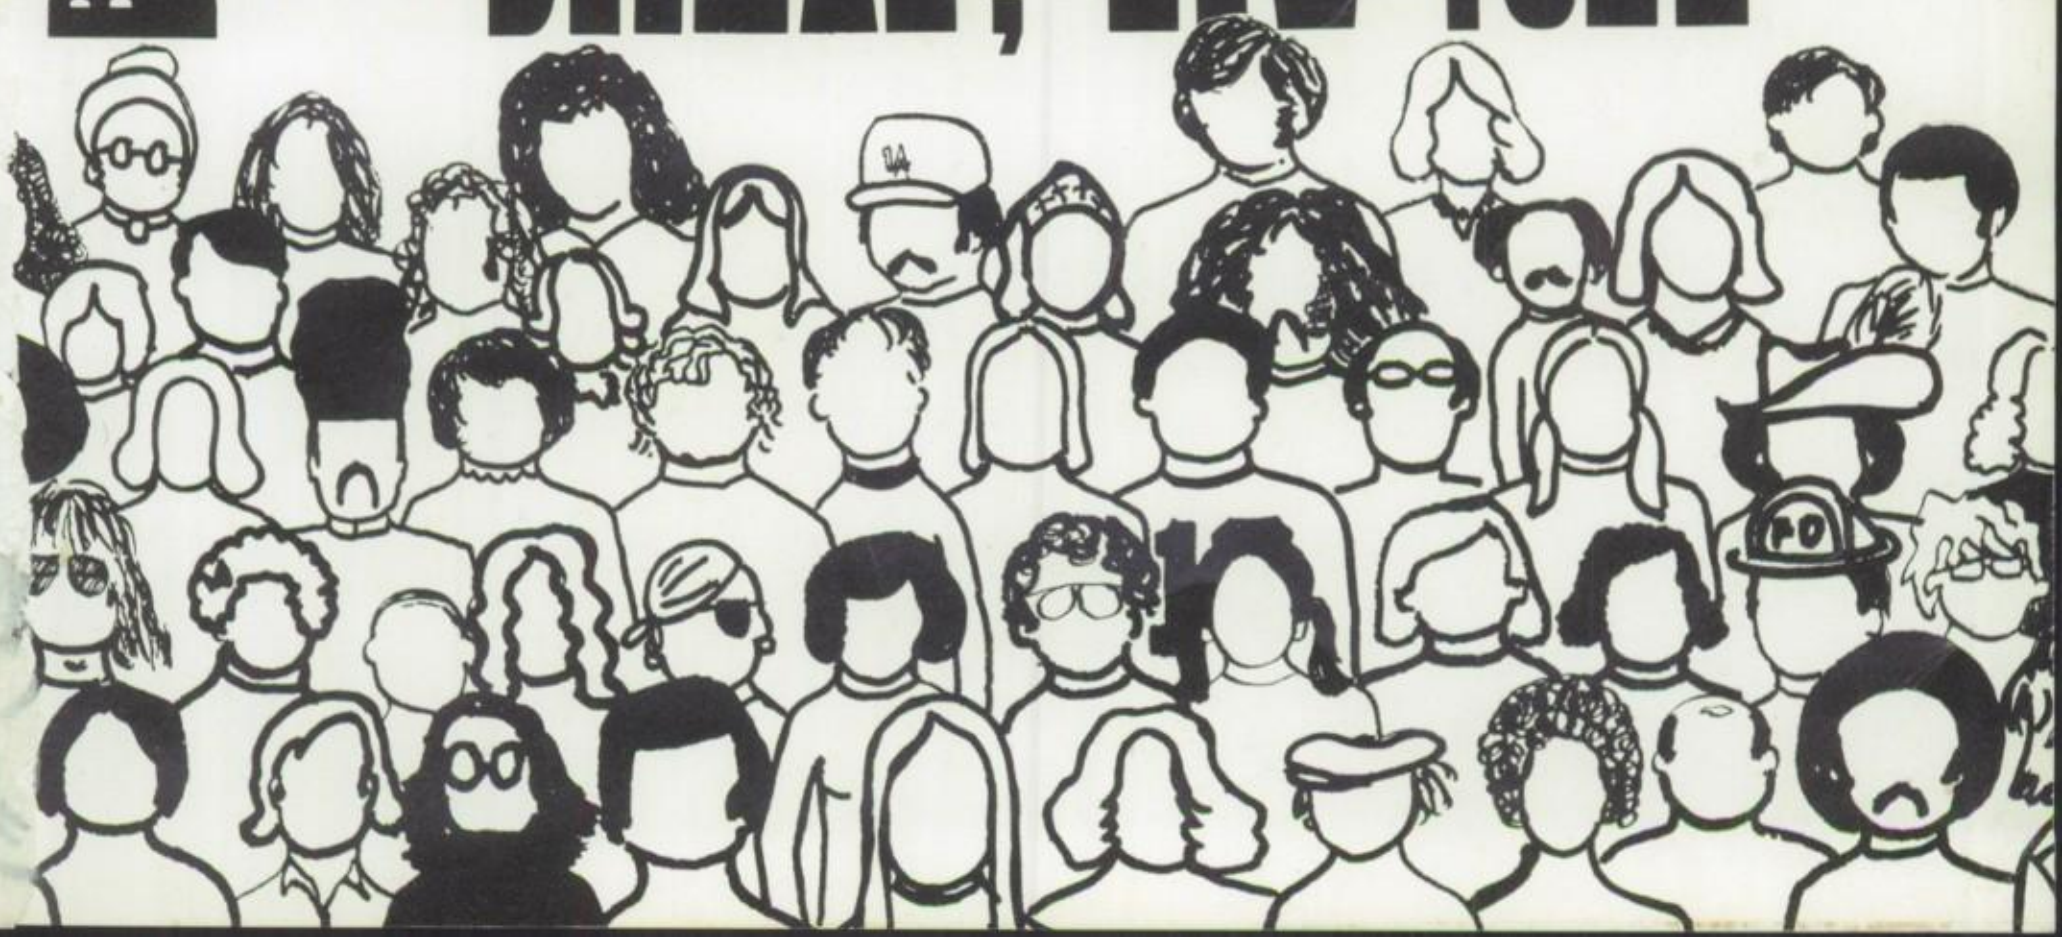
BETHLEHEM CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

700 DELAWARE AVENUE, DELMAR, NEW YORK



A mania is a madness or a craze. The students of BCHS have manias and a personality all their own. Some of our fads or manias last only for a short time and some last an entire school year. Many of them we'll remember for a long time, while others...we may need the help of this yearbook to bring them back to mind.

The tune of "Strike Up The Band" was heard as the Class of 1980 presented "Girl Crazy," by George Gershwin, on November 29, 30 and December 1. "Girl Crazy" is a romantic western, in which an actor turned cowboy named Johnny Churchill (Dave Irvine) falls in love with a local town girl (Betsy Downes). Johnny's old flame, a singer (Debbie DiClementi), is divorced from her Hungarian accompanist (Mark Spelich), and tries to win Johnny back. However, the conflict turns out with a happy ending. Supporting roles were played by Todd Ellis, Drew Hyde, Lou Tate, Sue Marr and Leslie Warren. Thanks go to everyone who helped to make "Girl Crazy" a success.

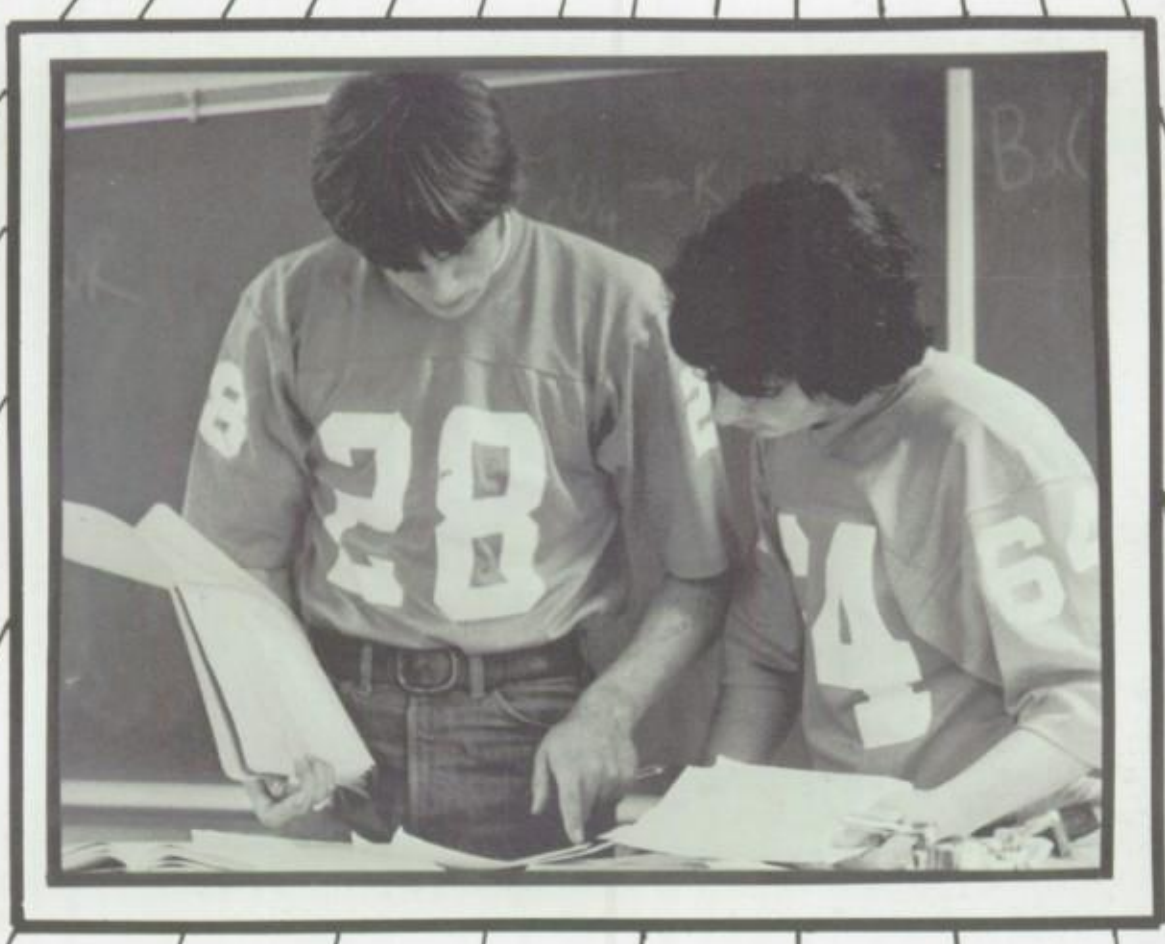
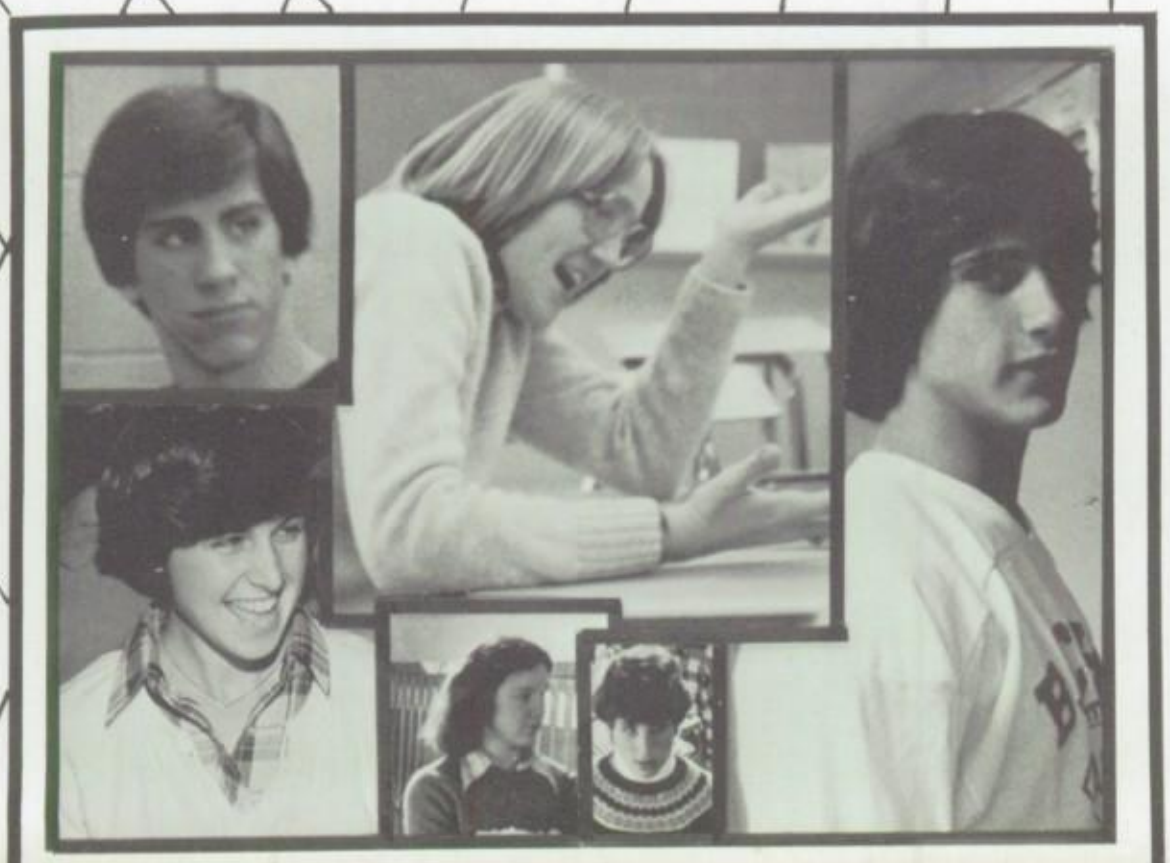
JUNIORS





"Summer"

I watched the leaves slowly turning into their bright colors and felt the years shift and settle on my shoulders. I thought of the summer when I hardly had a care, except to find something to do! As I thought of my freedom and happiness in the summer, I felt someone tugging at my sleeve; I turned to see Responsibility standing there calling me urgently into a crowded world where there was no time for peace and reflection ... and boredom.

SPORTS

Softball

The 1979 Varsity Softball Team concluded their season with a very impressive record. The team emerged as both Suburban Council Champions, and Section II Champions. A very important accomplishment was the "perfect game" pitched by JoAnne Van Woert, and backed by a superb fielding team. The Section II crown has been won before, but never has there been a Section II tournament as exciting as this one. We congratulate the girls, and Coach Salamone, for their fine work.
